

World Students' Day

World Students' Day is celebrated year on October 15 to commemorate the birth anniversary of Late Dr. A.P.J Abdul Kalam, the former President of India and an extraordinary leader, insightful academician, Aerospace scientist and a dedicated teacher who identified himself foremost in that role before anything else.

To pay tribute to the great visionary and India's Missile Man, Kapil Gyanpeeth celebrated the World Students' Day by organising various activities to appreciate and acknowledge the teachings and contributions of the great leader. Students of Classes IX to XII participated with full zeal and enthusiasm.

After a lot of research, students shared their views on the importance of celebrating this day through speeches and narration of anecdotes on his life and his famous quotes in the class. Students made and displayed collages and beautiful sketches which reflected the wonderful creativity of thoughts and perception.

Late Dr APJ Abdul Kalam's love for students, finds best voice when he said, "Dream, Dream, Dream, Dreams transform into thoughts. And thoughts result in action." He had also further said, to students, "If you fail, never give up because FAIL means 'first attempt in learning'."

In her message to students on this day, Principal Karuna Yadav advised students to consciously imbibe some of his philosophies of life.
